(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply.)

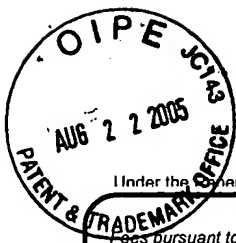

The application was abandoned for a failure to timely or properly file a reply to the Notice to File Missing Parts (Notice) mailed on June 24, 2004. Neither applicant nor applicant's representative received the Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application dated June 24, 2004 because it was directed to Motorola, Inc. Intellectual Property Department, P.O. Box 10219, Scottsdale, AZ 85271-0219, as indicated on the Notice itself. In reviewing the file it appears that the address error occurred because on the utility patent application transmittal form PTO/SB/05 (01/04), the incorrect Customer Number of "2625" was typed in instead of the correct Customer Number "26252".

On March 31, 2005 the undersigned submitted a Status Letter regarding the application (copy enclosed). No reply was received. As part of normal follow up on applications where nothing short of the return receipt postcard bearing the patent application serial number and official filing date had been received (copy also enclosed), Ms. Jody Cohan of the undersigned's office attempted to determine the status on the U.S.P.T.O. PAIR System. Since it was not available, she left a voice message with the Patent Assistance Center (703) 305-1801 on August 2, 2005. We received a telephone call from Ms. Durham in the Initial Patent Examination Office who indicated that the application had been abandoned on March 17, 2005 for failure to respond to the Missing Parts Notice. Ms. Durham then faxed, the next day (August 3, 2005), copies of the June 24, 2004 Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application and the March 17, 2005 Notice of Abandonment, both of which had been mailed to the Motorola, Inc. Intellectual Property Department.

On receipt of these materials, the required Oath or Declaration and a Power of Attorney was re-prepared and forwarded immediately to the inventor for signature. It accompanies the Response to Notice to File Missing Parts of Nonprovisional Application - Filing Date Granted, which is attached hereto.

In view of the foregoing, it is submitted that the delay in responding to the Notice was unavoidable and it is requested that the application be revived.

(Please attach additional sheets if additional space is needed.)
